Beginning this week, we are producing a weekly newsletter tracking cash commodity price changes from our proprietary index and sharing a succinct recap of what we view as the week's most interesting fundamental news (link below). The letter will have two parts:

County Cork LLC Proprietary Cash Index % Changes – a table displaying 5 and 20 day percentage changes in our proprietary (non-investable) cash indexes and the related futures price changes.

Interesting comments from a variety of sources related to agricultural happenings for the week.

We welcome your feedback and encourage you to share this letter with parties that may be interested.

Thank you for your continued interest in County Cork.
