Let's his staff know I have a documentary film crew (provide a link to Jehane and Karim (ted prize and iscarnominated for the square) following me tomorrow : they can respect his privacy but I need his ground rules (should they wait outside or should I leave them at the conference)

Give him a link to Netlix the Square and let him & Leslie know that they were trusted to film the Egyptian revolution so they are welcome in my book but it's his house his rules and I will respect that and leave them at the conference if that work best for him
