This week's projects channel your inner superhero, wage peace through ballroom dance, and capture your life story one second at a time.

What's your secret power?

Whether you're looking to leap tall buildings with ease or just lounge around your secret volcano base, these reversible satin capes will transform you into a bona-fide superhero. Fight evil while looking good.

Pirouette for peace

This documentary tells the story of Jewish and Palestinian children learning to ballroom dance. Initially unwilling to even touch one another, these students of acclaimed instructor Pierre Dulaine — himself a Jaffa native — slowly grow closer as they learn it takes two to tango.

Your life in a flash

On his 30th birthday, Cesar Kuriyama started recording one second of his life every day. This simple app makes it easy for you to do the same, turning a phone into a mobile documentary of your own existence.
