hi jeffrey,

..i was searching for a picasso painting that would work with the beach picasso painting, and i found one somehow similar to the painting we have(the first attachment)

i think we can use some elements from that painting, make it less busy and pick some colors from the painting we have, maybe some of the colored dots from the old painting and maybe one of the big square orange or blue shapes we have in the old painting..

what do you think? it seems picasso did both beach paintings somehow in the same period of time.

maybe you saw already this painting..i told sue to do a print for me a day before..i wanted to show you in prints, put one near the other..

thank you,
ion
