

Greetings,

I noticed you had logged on today, so I am assuming you still read with interest. I am curious to know if you are also familiar with another forum at airlinepilotforums.com?

Much of their forums can be viewed by the public, but some areas require membership. One such area is the Hangar Talk forum, where they have a thread discussing "Gulfstream Girl." In that thread, one of their moderators claims that you are the [REDACTED] in this news story:

Meet [REDACTED] Start Girl of the Raunchiest Part of Epstein Scandal << Dealbreaker: Wall Street Insider

I expect that it is only a matter of time before somebody will mention it here on PPW. Many of our members are members there, as well. I thought you might appreciate getting a heads up, as it is quite salacious and will not doubt garner a response.

Any information you can provide to dispel such a rumor would certainly be helpful.

Thanks,

Tony C
