Who Must Attend:

Both the Petitioner and Beneficiary must attend this appointment. Your attorney or authorized representative may attend as well.

Required Evidence To Be Submitted In-Person At Your Appointment:

- 1) Photo identification for the Petitioner. Examples of proper photo identification are U.S. passports, driver's licenses, or state-issued identification cards. Store-bought identification cards are not considered proper identification. Failure to bring proper photo identification may result in the denial of the petition.
- 2) Proof of Petitioner's U.S. Citizenship, such as U.S. birth certificate or naturalization certificate.
- 3) Beneficiary's passports (current and expired) and I-94 card.
- 4) Marriage Certificate and proof of termination (such as divorce decree or death certificate) of all prior marriages of Petitioner and Beneficiary.
- 5) Birth certificates for children, current bank letters, bank statements, lease agreements, rent receipts, mortgage agreements, health insurance policies, life insurance policies, utility bills, tax returns, and photos.
- 6) Currently-dated employment letters from both Petitioner's and Beneficiary's employers. Employment letters should be on company letterhead. The letter must state the date employment began, salary, marital status, dependents claimed, and whom to notify in case of emergency. The letter must be signed by an official of the firm or company. The latest two pay stubs or statements must also be submitted.
- 7) Federal, state and local income tax returns for the most recent tax year. Returns should be signed and dated and proof of filing is required. Official IRS transcripts can be obtained by calling 1-800-829-1040. Attach W-2's for both Petitioner and Beneficiary.
- 8) Two passport-style photographs for Petitioner and Beneficiary (CIS-approved style).
- 9) OTHER:

NOTE: You must bring the originals and photocopies of all documents submitted during the appointment, including photocopies of your passport and identification cards. Pursuant to 8 CFR 103.2(b)(1), the Service will retain for the record any original document submitted as evidence unless a photocopy is made. Please assemble your documents for submission in a neat and organized manner.
