Ask Ariely: On Sticking to Stocks, Stopping the Struggle, and Stifling Smoking

Here's my Q&A column from the WSJ this week — and if you have any questions for me, you can tweet them to @danariely with the hashtag #askariely, post a comment on my Ask Ariely Facebook page, or email them to AskAriely@wsj.com.

Dear Dan, How can we get people to follow their long-term strategies when investing in the stock market?...

Bobby Slayton I will be at the D.C. Improv this week working on new stuff and honing my Tonight Show set scheduled for August 7. If you're in D.C. Do come by. Not as depressing as The Holocaust Museum and more fun than The Lincoln memorial. That's quite a sales pitch, huh?

Reichart Von Would one of "you people" please start a Web 2.0 company to privatize and replace the DMV. Today I renewed my DL. I went to the site, clicked renew, it asked me to register. So I did. It failed, said data did not match. So I called their 877 number. Actually, the guy that answered was really cool (so your first employee should be him), he tells me "oh, yeah, you want to ignore those instructions, instead, go to [this other] page, and ignore the instructions from the one you went to and instead type in data from this [other] place on your card. We laughed.
