Date: Thu, 18 Dec 2014 19:15:34 +0000

Hey there,

Gifts Under $10!

We are excited to announce our new 3 Month Gift Account plan. This is the perfect holiday gift for a co-worker, family member or friend.

We deliver your gift email instantly with a custom message, so if you've still got anyone left on your shopping list, they should get one today!

The more you buy, the more you save. One 3 month gift account is only $9.99 and if you buy four accounts the price drops to $6.99 per account.

Your 60 Day Pro Account!

As a way of showing our appreciation for being an long time member we have extended a free 60 Day Pro subscription trial to you. (We're no longer offering free Personal accounts)

Next time you log in to focus@will you'll get access to all of the Pro features like our Music Energy Control, Productivity Tracker, and Custom Timer. Most importantly you will unlock the entire focus@will music library for your sessions which should extend your focus even further than you ever thought possible. Since you've been a member for awhile we are giving you double the trial length that a brand new user would receive.

New Beta Channels!

When you login, you'll notice that today we just launched two brand new beta channels on the focus@will music player. We present Drums & Hums Beta and Drum Zone Beta. These drum channels were created exclusively for focus@will here at the lab in varying tempos (you can adjust the speed using our Music Energy Control).

The Drums & Hums channel features two types of brainwave entrainment as well. Try them out with headphones.

Happy Holidays and warm wishes!

Will and the focus@will team
