

From: "Henri d'ARMAGNAC" <hac@as-avocats.fr>

To: <jeevacation@gmail.com>

Subject: A

Date: Thu, 27 Mar 2014 16:41:01 +0000

Attachments: Agreement_as_to_succession.docx; Beta_will.docx; Alpha_will.docx

Inline-Images: image001.jpg

---

Dear Jeffrey,

Here is what you expected.

For your understanding, the persons you know will be called Alpha and Beta.

You will find attached 3 different documents which summarize the testamentary situation of Alpha and Beta, that is to know:

- Alpha and Beta agreement as to succession
- Beta will
- Alpha will

The 3 original documents are all dated August 3, 2010.

Beta has theoretically the possibility to change alone his own will. In such a case, Beta could choose another executory instead of Alpha.

Of course, he cannot change anything in the agreement as to succession unless Alpha agrees to do so.

I stay at your disposal to discuss this subject.

Best regards,

Henri d'Armagnac

Avocat à la Cour

Ancien Membre du Conseil de l'Ordre

Associé Gérant

d'@rmagnac
Société d'Avocats

hac@as-avocats.fr