Jeffrey,

I recognize that you do not know Rachel and that it is very ease to inaccurately assume that because "the boyfriend" is at Michigan, that somehow this fact has a certain level of influence on her desire to attend U of M.

The fact of the matter is that Michigan was 100% the right school for her based upon multiple variables - both hard and soft.

My question concerns the "specific" education she would receive at both schools as it relates "DIRECTLY" to her major (Communication / Public Relations / TV / Media) and how attending Newhouse at Syracuse vs U of M is perceived by employers when she looks for a job in 4 years.
