AAPL (+$70k)

As you saw, Apple posted a strong quarter -- top and bottom line beat with in-line guidance. Apple increased its share repurchase of $90B from $60B, increased dividend by 8% to $3.29/quarter, and announced a 7-for-1 split.

Shares are up over $30 in the after-market to ~$566. Recall that you own 2k shares at $529 (+$70k on your position). Consider adding on momentum.

FB (+438k)

Facebook has bounced around after reporting a top and line beat...and announcing that the company's CFO (David Ebersman) is stepping down. But the stock has recouped today's losses, trading ~$63 after-hours.

As you know, you own 17,500 shares at the IPO price of $38 (+$438k on your position)

TWTR (+$30k)

Twitter reports it's second quarter as a public company next Tuesday, 4/29, and May represents the expiry of a significant lock up of restricted PE shares. Stock's fallen from 70 to 45 as you know, but post these two headwinds may present a compelling entry point to add to your longer-term position. (chart below)

As you know, you own 1,500 shares at the IPO price of $26 (+30k on your position).
