> Did you see the attractiveness study suggesting that a 45 degree angle is > visually preferred . I'll start with 20k 20k would be great—addressed as usual to Biosocial Research Foundation, &#8453; Trivers, 131 George St, New Brunswick, NJ 08901-1414

yes i thought i had sent it to you but see no record that i did; it got me thinking about lumbar angle and sprinting in the first place paper itself is attached
