Amenity highlights:

Dining options at Sugar Bay Resort & Spa run the gamut from a candlelit restaurant with dress code to a poolside bar where bare feet are in vogue. At night, music and dancing are offered in the lobby lounge. Breakfast (surcharge) is served daily in 2 of the restaurants. Room service is available during limited hours.

The 10,000-square-foot Journeys Spa offers men's and women's saunas, steam rooms, and private sunning terraces furnished with cushioned lounge chairs. The spa's Signature Experience begins with a choice of salt glow or marine body polish, followed by a deluxe facial and a choice of four 50-minute massages.

Recreation options include 4 lighted tennis courts, a basketball court, a fitness center, and daily activity programs. Umbrellas and sun loungers are available at both the 3 interconnecting freshwater pools and the resort's secluded private beach. A children's club provides supervised activities for kids age 4-12.

The colonial-style main building houses shops selling resort wear, gifts, and sundries. Three lobby computers provide high-speed Internet access (surcharge); complimentary wireless Internet access is available in public areas. A complimentary shuttle service to the beach is also available.

Resort casual attire is acceptable during the daytime anywhere on the resort. Shorts, t-shirts, jeans, sundresses, and similar apparel are recommended. Bathing suit cover-ups are required in all restaurants and public areas.

Notification and fees:

Self parking costs USD 15 per day (a different rate applies for extended parking)

Rollaway beds are available for USD 15 per night
