To fully identify the narrow group of documents (other than the attorney correspondence that was the subject of the 11th Circuit appeal) for which the Court is ordered discovery we need to go to the privilege logs and compare to pgs 26-51 of opinion. I can do that Wednesday if desired. Overall, this opinion is a thorough repudiation of Cassell's attempts to seek GJ materials, prosecution file evidence, Govt work product, draft indictments, anything to do with the GJ investigation on relevance, 6E, and work product grounds. Clear the OPR was about MM and the recusal about defending the Office position on the CVRA (probably unnecessary if SD Fla didn't volunteer). I have again asked Dexter Lee for copy of what Govt produced to Cassell re attorney correspondence (email this AM). I expect a Govt Rule 26 letter to Cassell identifying witnesses and documents and the long awaited Partial SJ from Cassell. We should "take on" the SJ to the extent it alleges any "conspiracy" and request and strongly advocate that Dexter include in his response an opposition to the continuation of these baseless accusations.
