Becky Fatemi comments in the Sunday Telegraph article on the election!

How to behave, West Country-style: eat a cream tea once a week and refer to anywhere east of Exeter as 'up north' Prepare for the pimp backlash if Red Ed gets the keys to No 10 Downing Street, surely the most expensive live/work address in the country. Chatter around the second kitchens of the well-to-do is of how a Labour victory will bring about a boom in building. Not of much-needed affordable homes or much-vaunted garden cities, but of even more extensions — down and out in prime central London, if you will — as the rich stay put and plan to add value to their homes
