dear Jeffrey

i have finished my book (outline attached) i will self-publish; every one tells me i am a fool and why go the micky mouse route when i should go with a major publisher-i say why should i trade 70% of the take per paperback vs 7% via a publisher but i have no financial sense, so who knows

here is the chapter most relevant to our shared experience of being "Under Arrest" the first several are trivial, overnight affairs associated with drinking, later somewhat more interesting and ending with (p8 ff) the truly harrowing ten days in lock-up in Kingston, Jamaica, at Halfway Tree-not an experience i am eager to repeat i return on the 25th and look forward to chatting with you in person perhaps within a couple of weeks or so warmest best

bob
