Bill Helman has some ideas on how to create a business around this and to monetize the concepts / plant to human translational research and don't worry he's incredibly discrete. And discreet.

Also Geoff Ling the former head of DARPA and total genius is also my good friend and very supportive - didn't give a ton of detail but he says he will do whatever or even help run, advise, etc. he knows how to make science fiction science fact.

i sent bill a note after talking to wash, he is causing them to rethink the charitable deduction for overseas programs. donald is NOT pragmatic. that takes thinking ability, . he is setting himself up as part of yesterdays establishment and their perceived mistakes.

1. Trump will never get the budget cuts through. He claims he's spoken to senators and that they will fight and that the White House can't unilaterally do a budget like that.
