I'm scared of doing anything beyond asking nicely for anything. I saw how he destroyed steve and Nathan and boris and ballmer and everyone he wants to destroy. Larry does his thing with the media and all his whisper campaigns across all networks. Melinda gets me fired from my academic role. He tells all his CEO buddies whatever he wants. I won't be able to catch up and it will all happen in 2 seconds behind my back and before I even knew what hit me. He's threatened to "destroy" me more than once.

In other news though, Paul Allen's CEO and his COO both reached out to me. The COO wants to meet next week and the CEO says sometime in the coming months.

I think they are planning a really big reorganization and firing/restructuring a lot of stuff that the last leadership team had in place.

I had some ideas for them and for Paul about how to maybe turn his science stuff a little more towards the markets.

Harrington? It's just a way to help turn some of Paul's science research grants/bets into investments.

<http://www.uhhospitals.org/services/harrington-discovery-institute/about-us/harrington-project-for-discovery-and-development>

If academic institutions can build tech transfer units and stuff like that I suspect he can do a lot more efficiently from a private perspective.
