Very few buildings take a year upfront, most of them require 40*rent income or a guarantor.

I found an option where is possible to pay upfront. Great building. A bit above the budget 3600 for 1br, All they require : photo ID and bank statement.

Am really enjoying my fellowship and the mitochondria transplant idea really taking root

My department rallying behind me and assigned a research coordinator who is helping put together a proposal for the NIH. May try DARPA too. The Harvard team is partnering with us.

We will see where it goes. I know it will work and be a really good thing. Organelle transplantation.
