I would do a cystoscopy first. After we get the repeat cultures. I would go for the anti-inflammatory route. Your entire body will feel better.

You are approaching it incorrectly. You're approaching it from an intellectual point of view like homework and that takes all the fun out of it. If you don't like Bergman, which I know you don't, that's fine. I'm sure he's way too sophisticated for your taste. Should I now get you the box set on Bergman's movies?

Very funny. That was not my fault. John Burnham promised me a DVD of it. I asked him again and he said he was on it as he wanted a DVD as well. Usually he's very reliable. Probably because he knew it wasn't for me he dropped the ball. ;) Ur actually right about Bergman because if Woody hadn't explained it to me I wouldn't have understood the Seventh Seal either.

Trich is picked up in urine tests that you had. They were negative. Just ordered a STI urine screen that specifically looks for Trich.
