 I really admire Mark Zuckerberg and his wife and what they're trying to do. I wish more people were like them. It would make a better world.

Thank you for the iPhone and I guess Woody wants to thank you as well as this is what he said below.

You kill me. We should only communicate by text. Even when we're in the same room. You're a great texter.

we can see light , which is only radiation in a very very narrow band, if we could “ see “ more frequencies we would see all the cellular communication waves around us. would that be reality, NO. because the “ reality we “ see “ is limited to a narrow human sensitive band of information.

Correct

However the rest of reality - inferred - is the knowing and interpreting of cognitive experience in consciousness also

By giving it names and labels we have constructed a human universe

a universe that we know is the universe constructed by human senses and cognition. there like radio waves is an unseen one. and many others constructed by the thing that senses it. YOU ARE RIGHT

All named forms are phenomena

All phenomena are a collection of intermittent sensations images feelings and thoughts (qualia) arising from and subsiding into formless awareness.

Humans interpret that as mind body universe stars galaxies etc point the qualia is separate from the sensations. it is inherent, in the object. roundness" for ex. it is apart from our interpretation.

Got your messages

Yes qualia are excitations of consciousness experienced in consciousness . Interpretation is also in consciousness

There is only consciousness

The construct is in consciousness

Consciousness conceives constructs governs and becomes the human universe

Other species are in the human universe - in the form we experience them

Taking off !

Bye for now

Naturally you have a thing against old people. The perfume could be from a young person. I'm sure that you wouldn't mind. What are you going do when you become old?

Woody doesn't film on the weekends. He's a little lazy. He's committed to his work but not that committed. Lunch today is not possible, but thank you anyway. Woody said "we still haven't finished the last of the chocolate cake. When we run out will be over."

Kissinger is a much reviled character and I don't know if he adds any luster to Trumps image.
