Yes. In fact you will learn more if you read it in both English and Russian, . The idea that most people only read a book once is as silly as hearing a great piece of music only once. No one says no reason to hear Beethoven symphony, I already heard it.

And for example in the quote I sent you it uses the English word. (translated from the original French). "Tamed ". Idont know what the word will be in Russian or how you will react to it. Tamed in English is usually used for animal trainers. Whose job it is to take the wildness OUT of the beast. . that's not what the author really meant . He meant cared for , devoted to. Trained and cherished. Accepting the wildness and riding it
