the game theory people at harvard suggest that consciousness may be primarily an error correction system . it puts up guard rails and make course corrections , it does not dictate. just correct. sort of like the flippers on a pinball machine. . meditation might tilt the machine more horizontal slowing the balls. and emotions tilting it sot hat the filippers (conscious) miss a great number. it puts the consiousness in a small role. which many of the woo woos choose not to like

I wish we controlled every aspect

Of sinai..

Will reach out to chief there to make sure not repeat wait..

Give him my cell

And schedule date through office
