In response on your first message, to be honest I want to give all my force to learn english, because I want to have a good progress faster, and now I have nerves about slow one. I completely agree with you, because I want work with you and now the most important things for me is English. As for degree, I need have just practice around 2 weeks in a year, but I haven't have official work place, I can make documents for practice in the last work, my past colleague helps me. I am not bored without work, because I have, as you correctly emphasizes, English, horse and massage. But I have to say, that even this so small 500 dollars is good help for my budget of my life.
