

VOTE

Nandi Sékou

for the Virgin Islands
BOARD OF EDUCATION

District of
St. Thomas / St. John
November 6th 2018

Educate Our Children and Empower Their Dreams!

Nandi Sékou, Esq.

Nandi Sékou, Esq. is the daughter of the late Samuel and Rosanna Parris. She is a Professor of Criminal Justice at the University of the Virgin Islands. As an Educator, Attorney, and Activist, she is committed to the transformation of our public education system for the 21st century.

MAKING A DIFFERENCE

Elected to the Council of Urban School Boards (CUBE) in 2015 and re-elected in 2017

Elected as Northeast Director to the National School Boards Association (NSBA) in 2016 NSBA which was founded in 1940 and has over 90,000 members is the premier organization of School Boards throughout the United States and U.S. Virgin Islands.

Initiated the request of an Audit by the Inspector General for Transparency

MAJOR ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Increased quantity and amount of scholarships for students
- Expanded scholarship offerings by reallocating funds
- Provided more in-service grants for government employees
- Cultivated scholar-athlete programs and varsity sports
- Created the Conditional Certificates for Teacher Licensure
- Provided Internships and Employment Opportunities for Our Youth
- Commissioned Empirical Research on Teacher Compensation and Satisfaction and Student Satisfaction

GOALS

Governance over the Public Education System
Comprehensive Overhaul of the Curriculum to include Rigorous and Relevant Academic, Vocational, Technical and Career Courses

Modernized School Plants, Facilities, and Equipment

Nandi Sékou, Esq.

Ensuring a Quality Education for All Students.