IRS regulations require the following statements:

"Federal law requires this consent form be provided to you. Unless authorized by law, we cannot disclose your tax return information to third parties for purposes other than the preparation and filing of your tax return without your consent. If you consent to the disclosure of your tax return information, Federal law may not protect your tax return information from further use or distribution.

You are not required to complete this form to engage our tax return preparation services. If we obtain your signature on this form by conditioning our tax return preparation services on your consent, your consent will not be valid. If you agree to the disclosure of your tax return information, your consent is valid for the amount of time that you specify. If you do not specify the duration of your consent, your consent is valid for one year from the date of signature."

If you are requesting disclosure of personal information from a joint return, you are representing that we have consent for both parties on the return.

If you believe your tax return information has been disclosed or used improperly in a manner unauthorized by law or without your permission, you may contact the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration (TIGTA) by telephone at 1-800-366-4484, or by email at complaints@tigta.treas.gov.

I authorize Intuit, the maker of TurboTax, to disclose to BANK and SBTPG my name, email address and refund amount, necessary to enable processing of my refund. SBTPG will send my name and email address to ACI so the Amazon.com Gift Card(s) I am buying from Intuit can be emailed to me.
