This is an IRS requirement

If you tell us it's okay, we'll use some of your tax information in order to make sure your correct refund amount is processed for your e-gift card.

IRS regulations require the following statements:

"Federal law requires this consent form be provided to you. Unless authorized by law, we cannot use your tax return information for purposes other than the preparation and filing of your tax return without your consent.

You are not required to complete this form to engage our tax return preparation services. If we obtain your signature on this form by conditioning our tax return preparation services on your consent, your consent will not be valid. Your consent is valid for the amount of time that you specify. If you do not specify the duration of your consent, your consent is valid for one year from the date of signature."

If you are requesting use of personal information from a joint return, you are representing that we have consent for both parties on the return.

If you believe your tax return information has been disclosed or used improperly in a manner unauthorized by law or without your permission, you may contact the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration (TIGTA) by telephone at 1-800-366-4484, or by email at complaints@tigta.treas.gov.

I authorize Intuit, the maker of TurboTax, to use the information provided in this 2017 return to determine whether I am eligible to purchase an Amazon.com Gift Card and receive the associated bonus
