

 Principale

Did you get my previous email ? I was thanking you dearly for being so understanding and accepting our rate of 500 euros... We are very happy to do our next photo shoot with you. It will actually take place late October early November, I will precise you the date very soon. It is a very important issue for us and I am sure you will be divine...

Can you confirm you are still ok for it ? And then we will organize your flights...

All the best.
