OP you've included personal details of multiple individuals and have started a witch hunt in the comment section (which is why the thread is now locked). While we wanted to allow this thread, we are unable to do so in its current form without potentially running afoul of the site wide tos.

If you wish to post further about this issue please send us a modmail and we will review your request to ensure the post does not inadvertently put the subreddit at risk of a ban.

More on Zebo if you read through

I also found out Zebo passed away 5/5/15

Search for his obit. Naples Florida.

Zebo owned the island before Epstein did
