Submitted Text:

I am a victim of Jeffrey Epstein. In 2006 a girl named Iryna approached me [REDACTED] on 34th st in Manhattan. I was looking for a job at that moment and she told me that she knows this rich guy who pays $300 for a foot massage, then she asked me to send my pictures on this email address [REDACTED], and in a day or so i met Iryna and [REDACTED] who seemed to interview me before meeting Epstein. I was not a minor at that time i just turned 21, [REDACTED]. The day i met Epstein, his maid took me upstairs in the elevator to his massage room. It was a dark room and it had a painting of some young girl on it. I was told to undress and be only in underwear and bra, after Epstein came into the room wearing a white robe. He undressed and laid on the table. I started a foot massage, when later i noticed he started touching me. He had some sex toys and approached using them on me, i told him no, this is not what i was told it would be, but he did not stop, and I was frozen. After, he gave me 300 dollars and i left in shock. Iryna was waiting for me downstairs and i did not know what to tell, i was embarrassed. I was also mad at Iryna for not telling me what to expect and i was mad at myself for allowing this to happen. Iryna continued calling me about once a week telling me that Jeffrey is in town and he would like to see me. I was telling her that i have periods and i cannot, but I have to admit i went the second time, and it was the worse experience than first time. I do not know why i did it, i thought he would not do the same since i said no the first time, but that was my last time i was there. Iryna also continued asking me if i can introduce her to one of my friends, so she can also do a massage, i continued on saying no, and in about a week i left NY and do not know if she ever contacted her.
