Date of entry 07/30/2019

MARIA ALESSI, was interviewed at [REDACTED]. Present for the interview was [REDACTED]. After being advised of the identity of the interviewing Agents and the nature of the interview, ALESSI provided the following information:

ALESSI started working for EPSTEIN around 1993. ALESSI remembered when she started working for EPSTEIN her husband (JUAN ALESSI) had already been working for him for about 3 years. ALESSI recalled leaving EPSTEIN around December of 2002. During that time period, ALESSI's primary work responsibilities revolved around EPSTEIN's home in West Palm Beach. ALESSI would not typically directly deal with EPSTEIN, or speak with him but was more told what to do by her husband. ALESSI's husband spent more time dealing with the inside of the house. Much of her duties were performed outside of his home. She would do shopping for the house, buy clothing, purchase movie tickets, go to the pharmacy and other various errands. Because of this, ALESSI stated she does not recall seeing anything unusual inside of the house.

ALESSI recalled two girls, approximately 18 years old being inside the house. ALESSI remembered seeing [REDACTED] inside of the house. ALESSI recalled seeing another girl that used to come with her mother to the house. Other girls ALESSI recalled seeing were approximately in their 20's and 30's.

EPSTEIN would often come to the house with a chef, and sometimes he would be with his personal assistant MAXWELL. Sometimes EPSTEIN's mother would come to the house and ALESSI would help her out because she lived alone.

ALESSI stated that "the young girls started coming after I stopped working there". When asked how she knows this, she stated "because I saw on
