

Yesterday, 11.21.2005, my partner, Steve Kiraly, and I traveled to Orange Park (Jacksonville), Florida, in order to attempt to interview [REDACTED]. She was a person of concern to Jeff.

The purpose of having two people present was to act as witnesses as to whatever might have been said by [REDACTED] during the course of our interview.

[REDACTED] lives with her 18 year old boyfriend, [REDACTED] and his mother and boyfriend at [REDACTED]

Upon our arrival at her house we noticed her [REDACTED] gone. We then began the process of waiting for her. At about 2:00 PM we observed her boyfriend, [REDACTED] arrive at the house. We approached him and asked if [REDACTED] was there. He told us that she had just started a new job at a debt collection agency, that he did not know the name of it or their telephone number, and that she would be home around 6:30 PM. We did not advise him of why we wanted to meet with [REDACTED]. Will said we were welcome to come back after she got off of work. He also provided her cell telephone number of [REDACTED]. Will was very cordial and friendly.

We decided not to call her but to wait for her to come home.

At approximately 6:30 PM [REDACTED] arrived home. We waited about 10 minutes and approached the residence.

I knocked on the door and a woman, who I now know as [REDACTED] answered the door. I told her that we would like to speak with [REDACTED]. She said there was no [REDACTED] there. I said there must be because her [REDACTED] was parked out front. She then said, "I'm sorry, you mean [REDACTED]" and I said yes.

Alex then came to the door. The following conversation took place.

[REDACTED] my name is Bill Riley (as I handed her my business card) and this is my partner Steve Kiraly. We are investigators from Miami working on behalf of Jeff Epstein]

SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER PARAGRAPHS 7, 8, 9, 10, 15, and 17

[REDACTED] I don't talk to fucking cops and I'm not talking to you

[Riley] [REDACTED] we're not cops]

[REDACTED] You need to leave. Get the fuck off my property, leave now

[Riley] [REDACTED] there is no need to be hostile. We are not cops. We are just trying to learn the truth

[REDACTED] Get the fuck off my property, What, you're still standing here

[Riley] We're leaving but we don't understand why you're so hostile

[REDACTED] You have no right to be here. I moved. All that shit is behind me in another world so get the fuck out of here

[REDACTED] goes back inside the house and [REDACTED] came outside on the porch.

[Riley] Ma'am we're not being hostile. We're here just to learn the truth.

[Parker] Look, [REDACTED] is a good girl and she left down there. We're trying to sort things out now and hire her an attorney

[Riley] I understand but we're not the bad guys and we're not cops]

[REDACTED] Okay, but she doesn't want to talk with you and you really have no right being here on my property this time of night

[Riley] I'm sorry we're here at 6:45 PM but your son, [REDACTED], told us we could come back

[REDACTED] He doesn't own this property

[Riley] I don't know that do I

[REDACTED] came back outside

[REDACTED] You're still here, get the fuck out. I'm calling the cops if you do not leave

[Riley] [REDACTED] we're talking with [REDACTED] and yes we're leaving but all we wanted was to learn the truth from you about what knowledge you may or may not have

We then left the premises and I immediately made my notes of our short conversation.
