

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

_____ x

██████████,

Case No. ██████████

Plaintiff,

COMPLAINT AND JURY DEMAND

-against-

DARREN K. INDYKE and RICHARD D. KAHN, as EXECUTORS OF THE ESTATE OF JEFFREY E.
EPSTEIN, and ██████████

Defendants.

_____ x

Plaintiff ██████████, by and through her attorneys, ██████████ and

██████████, for her Complaint alleges as follows:

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. Beginning when Plaintiff ██████████ was sixteen years old, Jeffrey Epstein preyed upon her, manipulated her to be completely dependent on him, and repeatedly sexually assaulted her. As a result, she attempted suicide multiple times. His degradation of her was total for years.

2. As a young child, ██████████ had fled a war-torn region with her parents and come to the United States as a refugee. When she met Epstein in 2004, ██████████ was sixteen years old, living in New York and working non-stop in pursuit of a promising career as a model. She had success: she had numerous spreads in major fashion magazines and appeared in various high-fashion ad campaigns.

3. ██████████ met Epstein through another model. He made clear to ██████████ how important and powerful he was. He indicated to her that he could help her with connections in the modeling world and could even help her get admitted to Harvard if she got the necessary grades.

¹ Plaintiff is using the pseudonym ██████████ in this Complaint in place of her real name. ██████████ is not her real first name. Plaintiff intends to file a motion to proceed under a pseudonym on the basis of her privacy because her allegations concern childhood sexual abuse.

CONFIDENTIAL

4. [REDACTED] felt very fortunate to have met Epstein. She was amazed that such a powerful man wanted to help her, and believed that she could trust him. Because they had hours of conversation about her and her desire for an education, she understood that he could change her life and help her achieve her parents' dream of going to a top school.

5. Epstein used this power over [REDACTED] to sexually abuse her, viciously and repeatedly. Epstein, often through Defendant [REDACTED] ("[REDACTED]"), would summon [REDACTED] to his Manhattan townhouse, order her to give him massages, and then subject her to sexual acts, the severity of which increased over time.

6. In [REDACTED] first visit to the townhouse, it was only a massage. The second time, Epstein ordered her to take her top off and sit on top of him while she massaged him. The third time, Epstein forcefully pressed an electric massage device against [REDACTED] genitals.

7. In subsequent encounters, Epstein ordered [REDACTED] to masturbate him. He forcefully penetrated her with his fingers. He forced her to perform oral sex on him numerous times, holding her head down on his penis even as she gagged and tried to escape. He ejaculated in her mouth and on her body. Epstein repeated this violent sexual abuse dozens of times. After each "massage," Epstein gave [REDACTED] a few hundred-dollar bills.

8. Epstein manipulated and threatened [REDACTED] to ensure that she understood his total power over her life, with both offers to help and threats not to contradict him. She was 16. [REDACTED] understood that she had no choice but to follow his commands.

9. In approximately late [REDACTED], when [REDACTED] was sixteen years old, Epstein took her virginity. Epstein first ordered her to strip down and shower, washed her compulsively, and threatened that if she was not a virgin he would have her killed. Epstein then forcibly penetrated her and took her virginity, pushing her face onto the bed to silence her protests.

10. ██████ played an integral role in facilitating Epstein's sexual abuse of ██████ ██████ arranged for ██████ to come to the townhouse and frequently saw ██████ going into the massage room with Epstein. Epstein openly commented to ██████ about ██████ performing sexual acts for him, and ██████ once witnessed Epstein forcing ██████ to perform oral sex on him.

11. In late 2005, after being sexually abused by Epstein yet again, she heard Epstein shout to ██████ that ██████ was "the best cocksucker." ██████ was mortified and ashamed, and in that moment suddenly saw the truth: she was not even a human being to Epstein, she was an object. As she left the townhouse feeling physically ill, ██████ saw another girl around her age entering his townhouse. The penny dropped: ██████ suddenly felt like Epstein's prostitute, as one of many girls he treated as sexual objects.

12. ██████ realization caused a breakdown. She nearly immediately left New York City, returned to her parents' home across the country and never saw Epstein again.

13. Epstein's abuse devastated ██████ She abruptly quit the modeling world in which she had been a budding star. She felt humiliated, angry, and suicidal. She cried inconsolably and had debilitating panic attacks. She developed severe depression and anxiety. She isolated herself and had to rebuild from a dark place.

14. ██████ continues to feel the dramatic psychological scars from Epstein's abuse every day.

15. When Epstein was arrested in July 2019, ██████ was briefly hopeful that he might finally face consequences. But his death left ██████ with the desolate sense that he has evaded justice yet again.

16. ██████ brings this action seeking, at last, some measure of justice for the egregious abuse that Epstein inflicted on her when she was a child, which irreparably scarred her for life.

PARTIES

17. Plaintiff [REDACTED] is an individual who resides in the [REDACTED] United States.

18. Defendants Darren K. Indyke and Richard D. Kahn are the Executors of the Estate of Jeffrey E. Epstein (the "Estate"). As Executors of the Estate, Defendants Indyke and Kahn are liable for the acts and omissions of Epstein and his agents. For purposes of 28 U.S.C. § 1332, Defendants Indyke and Kahn are deemed to be citizens of the United States Virgin Islands, where Epstein was domiciled at the time of his death.

19. Defendant [REDACTED] is an individual who at all relevant times resided in New York, New York. [REDACTED] was Epstein's assistant and scheduler who, upon information and belief, played an integral role in operating Epstein's operation of sex trafficking [REDACTED] and other underage girls. Upon information and belief [REDACTED] is a resident of [REDACTED]

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

20. This Court has subject-matter jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1332 because this case is between citizens of different states and the amount in controversy exceeds $75,000.

21. Venue is proper in this District pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b)(2) because a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claim occurred in this District.

22. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendants. As Executors of the Estate, Defendants Indyke and Kahn are subject to personal jurisdiction in this Court because Epstein was subject to personal jurisdiction at the time of his death.

23. This Court had personal jurisdiction over Epstein at the time of his death because the tortious acts giving rise to Plaintiff's claims took place in New York State.

24. This Court has personal jurisdiction over [REDACTED] because the tortious acts and omissions giving rise to Plaintiff's claims took place in New York State.

JURY DEMAND

25. Plaintiff hereby demands a trial by jury on all of her claims in this action.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

26. [REDACTED] was born in [REDACTED] outside of the United States in a small town. Her grandfather was a prominent doctor and her parents were well-educated.

27. When [REDACTED] was just four years old, however, the region she lived in descended into civil war. Two years later, her entire town was bombed, shelled, and eventually evacuated. She and her family fled on foot, travelling through war zones in a stream of refugees.

28. Her family had no money and lived together in one room, sharing a bathroom with other families. Their only clothing was what was provided to them by the Red Cross. Because of the war-torn economy, [REDACTED] parents were only able to find low-paying, unskilled jobs to survive.

29. Eventually, when [REDACTED] was nine years old, her family came to the United States as refugees.

30. [REDACTED] family settled in [REDACTED]. Her parents resorted to working in the kitchen of a McDonald's. They immersed themselves in the American Dream, working hard and becoming proud first-generation Americans.

31. When [REDACTED] was thirteen, she learned of a talent search for models and persuaded her mother to bring her to the event.

32. [REDACTED] quickly found success as a model. Her parents were devoutly Christian, and were displeased by [REDACTED] doing that type of work, and unprepared to deal with a daughter thrust in a spotlight. It seemed unbelievable to them that their daughter could earn thousands of dollars just by having her pictures taken. But they permitted her to keep doing so, largely because school counselors and family priests advised them to let [REDACTED] pursue this dream, so long as she kept up with her studies while travelling.

33. By age fifteen, [REDACTED] began traveling to New York City for modeling, while still attending school in [REDACTED]. Because of her immediate success, she moved there the following year, at age sixteen, living in an apartment for models in Manhattan with one or two roommates but no adult on the premises.

34. In New York, [REDACTED] had a hectic schedule of modeling work, frequently working eleven-hour days that involved ten or twelve casting events. She was represented by a prominent agency and worked with top-tier clients. She was featured in prominent magazines and heralded as a rising star in modeling world.

35. At casting events, [REDACTED] was often the youngest person, surrounded by older models. She felt empowered, feeling that she was a "big girl" and that she was smarter than the older models and able to do what they did despite her young age.

36. At the same time, [REDACTED] parents distanced themselves from her, as they did not approve of the modeling profession. Her father made it known to her that he did not approve of her doing that type of work.

37. In this context, [REDACTED] met Jeffrey Epstein for the first time in approximately the summer of 2004, when she was sixteen years old.

38. At one of the casting events, a model who was several years older than [REDACTED] mentioned Epstein to [REDACTED]. The woman said that Epstein had connections to Victoria's Secret, and told [REDACTED] that he would be the most interesting person she would ever meet.

39. [REDACTED] made an appointment to meet Epstein at his townhouse at 9 East 71st Street in Manhattan.

40. [REDACTED] did not view it as strange or concerning to go to Epstein's home. During that time period, it was common for her and other models to run around the city, ringing the doorbells of artists and photographers to meet with them at their studios and homes. Casting calls and waiting around in townhouses were a normal part of work. In those interactions, she had found nearly all of the people she met to be nice, and found that they were not predators and understood that she was a child.

41. When [REDACTED] rang the doorbell of Epstein's townhouse, a maid answered the door, but Epstein was standing right behind her, giving the impression that he was expecting [REDACTED]. Epstein seemed larger than life to [REDACTED].

42. [REDACTED] was impressed by the grandeur of Epstein's townhouse, the ornate furnishings, and the numerous photographs of famous people.

43. Epstein quickly touted his connections to important people. He pointed out to [REDACTED] a photo of Bill Clinton, the president who had made it possible for [REDACTED] and her family to come to the United States as refugees. Epstein told her that he and President Clinton were "best friends." When [REDACTED] explained her family's story, Epstein told her that he would personally thank "Bill" on her and her family's behalf.

44. Epstein told her about himself, including about his healthy lifestyle and that he did not drink or do drugs. This put her at ease, and caused her to think, "I'm in good hands."

45. Epstein asked [REDACTED] whether she had a boyfriend. [REDACTED] explained that she had never dated anyone, that her family was very religious, and that she was saving herself for marriage.

46. After they conversed, Epstein told [REDACTED] that he had a knot in his back that his masseuse had not gotten out, and asked if she would help him with it. [REDACTED] took this to be an innocent request. She had given massages to her mother and father, so Epstein's request did not seem strange.

47. Epstein led [REDACTED] to the massage room in his townhouse. He gave her a large massage device to use on his back, and she did so. Afterwards, Epstein told her she was an excellent masseuse. He pulled two or three hundred-dollar bills out of his wallet and gave them to [REDACTED] saying, in substance, "I was going to give it to my masseuse anyway, so you take it and pay for your car service or something."

48. Afterwards, [REDACTED] felt very fortunate to have made the connection with Epstein. She found him very impressive, and the smartest person she had ever met. She could not fathom the wealth and luxury that he had, and felt that she wanted to be like him. She assumed she would never see Epstein again, and would move on with her life.

49. To [REDACTED] surprise, Epstein called soon afterward. He told her that he had enjoyed talking to her, that he was impressed at how smart she was for a sixteen-year-old, and that her life story was touching. Epstein asked if [REDACTED] would like to see him again.

50. [REDACTED] found it unbelievable that Epstein, such a smart and powerful man, was impressed by her. She was thrilled at the successful track her life appeared to be taking. She believed that if she stuck by Epstein she would be in good hands.

51. When [REDACTED] went to Epstein's townhouse a second time, Epstein discussed his connections with Victoria's Secret, and said he would put in a good word for [REDACTED]

52. When [REDACTED] conversed with Epstein, she felt like she was in the presence of someone who was powerful and perfect. She saw that he had the ability to reach down from his powerful position and influence the people directly involved with [REDACTED] daily life and her future prosperity.

53. Epstein made a point of calling massive celebrities – such as an Oscar-winning actress and a world-famous supermodel – on a speakerphone in [REDACTED] presence to show her the tremendous influence he had. Those two famous women did pick up the phone and talk to Epstein when he called them. They plainly also thought he was impressive and important.

54. [REDACTED] told Epstein about her parents being upset that she was pursuing modeling, and explained that it was their dream for [REDACTED] to attend a prestigious college. Epstein told [REDACTED] that he was on the board of directors of Harvard University. He promised her that, if she did well on her SATs, he would write her a letter of recommendation for Harvard, which he said would carry significant weight in the admissions decision.

55. [REDACTED] strongly desired for her parents to be proud of her. Accordingly, Epstein's assurance that he could help her get into Harvard was deeply meaningful to her.

56. Epstein brought [REDACTED] back to the massage room. He asked her to get on top of him and to take her shirt off. Epstein instructed [REDACTED] to massage him, which she did. She had never done anything like this, but also felt that this older man who had spent so much time with her and promised her access to everything she wanted was someone she could not disappoint.

57. Afterwards, Epstein again gave [REDACTED] $200 in cash, and she left.

58. The third time [REDACTED] went to Epstein's townhouse, Epstein brought her to the massage room and pressed the massage device against her genitals. [REDACTED] had lived a chaste life and Epstein's conduct made her feel ashamed and embarrassed. [REDACTED] vividly remembers looking up at the domed ceiling of the massage room, painted with clouds, and feeling claustrophobic.

59. Epstein aggressively ordered [REDACTED] to masturbate him. In a forceful manner, he barked commands at [REDACTED] to stroke his penis and to play with his nipples.

60. Afterwards, Epstein gave her $300 and left.

61. Epstein's pattern of abuse continued. Epstein would tell [REDACTED] to come to his townhouse, order her to strip down and massage him, and sexually abuse her. At the end of each massage, Epstein would ejaculate while [REDACTED] touched him. Epstein would then tell her what a good girl she was, that he loved her, and that he would call her later. Each time, Epstein would give her two or three hundred-dollar bills.

62. Epstein acted as if he were [REDACTED] sexual teacher, guiding her sexual awakening. Mary experienced sexual feelings for the first time, but they were intertwined with immense shame and deep-seated fear.

63. Epstein escalated his sexual abuse over time. During one of [REDACTED] visits to his townhouse, in approximately mid-2004, Epstein forced his penis into her mouth and forced her to perform oral sex on him in a very aggressive manner. [REDACTED] choked and gagged, not knowing what to do, but when she tried to move her head away from Epstein's penis, he forced it back into place.

64. Afterwards, Epstein told her how amazing she was, and gave her $200 or $300.

65. As time went on, and [REDACTED] relationship with her parents remained distant due to their objection to her career choice, Epstein became the only adult presence in her life. Epstein began calling [REDACTED] constantly, whether she was in New York or traveling. He told her that he loved her. [REDACTED] continued to have an arduous schedule of modeling events, and, as a child, she perceived Epstein's daily check-up calls as giving her emotional support that she did not otherwise have.

66. Epstein told [REDACTED] about the island he owned in the Virgin Islands, and made repeated attempts to fly her to the Virgin Islands to meet people he assured her were very influential and would help with her future. Epstein told [REDACTED] that she should be willing to give other people massages as well.

67. Epstein invited [REDACTED] to stay in his home in Paris, and arranged for her to attend a concert accompanied by a world-famous supermodel.

68. Epstein had manipulated [REDACTED] into believing that Epstein's thoughts were focused on her career and her future.

69. At the same time, Epstein made sure [REDACTED] understood his power over her. If she was ever late to meet him, he would tell her that nobody messes with his time, and that she could lose everything. When [REDACTED] told Epstein she needed to leave for modeling commitments, he often demanded that she stay, telling her things like, "I could buy your agency today, you can miss that appointment."

70. Epstein continued to train [REDACTED] to be submissive to him and to submit to his orders.

71. Any time [REDACTED] failed to do exactly what Epstein commanded of her, Epstein threatened her and verbally berated her. On one occasion, when [REDACTED] failed to show up precisely when Epstein had asked her to, he reacted with anger, telling her, in substance, "How dare you? I could make you disappear. I could destroy you. I own this city."

72. [REDACTED] believed that was true, that Epstein could make her disappear. She felt he had total control to help her dreams come true, or to make her disappear.

73. Epstein's threats terrified [REDACTED]. She made sure to stay in line and not to disobey him.

74. When [REDACTED] talked back, Epstein would belittle her and scrutinize her appearance. At one point, Epstein critiqued [REDACTED] body, telling her that her legs were "too big." Epstein went so far as to send [REDACTED] to a plastic surgeon, who declined to perform any procedures on her.

75. On one occasion, Epstein had [REDACTED] sit on his lap, and yelled at her, saying, in substance, "We need to teach you how to please a man."

76. Epstein groped [REDACTED] and penetrated her vagina with his fingers.

77. Epstein forced [REDACTED] to perform oral sex on him on a number of other occasions. Epstein got very aggressive as he did so, holding [REDACTED] head down on his penis and giving her constant orders for how to please him.

78. [REDACTED] saw Epstein numerous times from the summer of 2004 until the end of 2005. These meetings were often arranged by calls from Epstein himself.

79. On numerous other occasions, Defendant [REDACTED] called [REDACTED] and scheduled appointments between [REDACTED] and Epstein.

80. [REDACTED] first met [REDACTED] in approximately early 2005, when [REDACTED] was approximately sixteen years old.

81. Upon information and belief [REDACTED] knew that Epstein engaged in numerous sexual acts with [REDACTED] when [REDACTED] was a minor.

82. When [REDACTED] called [REDACTED] to arrange meetings between [REDACTED] and Epstein, [REDACTED] referred to them as "massage" appointments. Upon information and belief, [REDACTED] knew that Epstein would engage in sexual acts with [REDACTED] a minor, at some or all of these "massage" appointments at the time [REDACTED] arranged those meetings.

83. While [REDACTED] was travelling, [REDACTED] wired money to her in order to facilitate further encounters between [REDACTED] and Epstein.

84. Upon information and belief, [REDACTED] was an integral part of Epstein's child sex trafficking operation.

85. Upon information and belief, [REDACTED] engaged in a long pattern of actions aimed at recruiting underage girls for Epstein to use for sexual purposes, and to facilitate sexual encounters between underage girls and Epstein.

86. Upon information and belief, [REDACTED] kept a Rolodex that included numerous underage girls for Epstein to use for sexual purposes.

87. Upon information and belief, [REDACTED] warned numerous underage girls who had been sexually abused by Epstein not to talk to the police, causing them to feel intimidated and frightened.

88. [REDACTED] was often present in the townhouse when [REDACTED] came there. [REDACTED] frequently observed [REDACTED] at Epstein's side, and [REDACTED] often observed [REDACTED] going in and out of the massage room.

89. On one occasion, Epstein violently forced [REDACTED] to perform oral sex on him in a hallway in the townhouse. [REDACTED] walked into the area and witnessed the sexual act, then quickly walked away. Minutes later, [REDACTED] heard Epstein gleefully comment to [REDACTED] in crude terms, that [REDACTED] was the best at performing oral sex. [REDACTED] was incredibly embarrassed and thought, "That's not me. I don't want to be presented this way."

90. On another occasion, in [REDACTED] presence, Epstein instructed [REDACTED] to arrange for new underwear to be purchased for [REDACTED] from Victoria's Secret. Just minutes later, the new underwear arrived, and [REDACTED] handed it to Epstein. Immediately after [REDACTED] left, Epstein ordered [REDACTED] to strip down and try the underwear on, and she obeyed. Epstein then took photographs of [REDACTED] in the underwear.

91. One day in approximately late [REDACTED], when [REDACTED] was sixteen years old, Epstein raped her. [REDACTED] went to Epstein's townhouse that day, and Epstein was angry with her. He ordered her to strip down and shower, telling her that she did not smell good. Epstein washed [REDACTED] entire body compulsively, and then angrily told her, in substance, "If you are lying to me about being a virgin, I will have you killed." [REDACTED] believed that threat to be true.

92. After [REDACTED] showered, Epstein forcibly penetrated her vagina with his penis and took her virginity. While Epstein raped her, [REDACTED] felt numb. She felt her mind separate from her body. [REDACTED] protested, but Epstein forced her face onto the bed to stifle her cries.

93. Afterwards, Epstein gave [REDACTED] $200. He led her out of the townhouse assuring her, as he had many other times, that she was on the right path under his guidance. Epstein told [REDACTED] that he loved her, and said "don't f it up."

94. Throughout 2005, Epstein continued to exercise tremendous control over [REDACTED] life.

95. In the spring of 2005, when [REDACTED] was seventeen years old, Epstein arranged for [REDACTED] to stay in an apartment of his on the Upper East Side of Manhattan, close to his townhouse.

96. One day around Thanksgiving [REDACTED], when [REDACTED] was seventeen years old, [REDACTED] again went to Epstein's townhouse for the final time. As he had so many times before, Epstein sexually assaulted her, then gave her a few hundred dollars. After he did so, he shouted out a disparaging and demeaning remark about her to [REDACTED] saying she had performed well. [REDACTED] felt deep shame.

97. As [REDACTED] walked out of the townhouse and onto to the street, she saw another young girl walk by her and go into the townhouse.

98. At that moment, [REDACTED]'s world shattered. Epstein had made himself the center of her young existence, masking himself as a parental substitute and mentor who had her best interests in mind. She realized that Epstein was paying her for sexual acts, and that she was just one of many young girls Epstein had in rotation for his use as sexual objects. She felt that she was no longer a human being.

99. [REDACTED] effectively had a nervous breakdown. She was humiliated, angry, and suicidal. She felt immense desolation. She found herself crying inconsolably, shaking, and hyperventilating.

100. [REDACTED] found herself unable to go to casting events or meetings. She locked herself away from everything.

101. [REDACTED] was desperate to escape the circumstances Epstein had her living in, but she needed Epstein's permission to leave New York. She asked Epstein to let her visit her parents in the [REDACTED] for her mother's birthday. Epstein agreed to let [REDACTED] go, but only if she returned immediately after. Epstein made sure to have his close associate purchase a round-trip ticket for [REDACTED]. But, once [REDACTED] left New York, she never went back, even though she had significant jobs lined up and was burning professional bridges and giving up her modeling career by going to the [REDACTED].

102. Epstein and his agents continued to contact [REDACTED] but she refused to go back. Near the end of [REDACTED] Epstein tracked down the home phone number for [REDACTED]'s parents and called. [REDACTED]'s mother answered the phone, told Epstein that he should go out with women his own age, and told her she was going to call the police. At the same time, [REDACTED] remained extremely frightened of all of Epstein's power and threats, and would never have let her parents call the police.

103. In the subsequent months [REDACTED] became chronically depressed. She had severe anxiety. She had frequent suicidal ideations. She felt debilitating nausea and stomach pain. She felt dead inside, unable to connect with anyone. She numbed herself and tried to bury the pain and avoid dealing with what had happened.

104. [REDACTED] abruptly stopped modeling, giving up the lucrative career in which she was a rising star and for which she had given up so much. She stopped pursuing or attending modeling appointments, ruining the momentum of her career and causing her irreparably to lose connections with top agencies and clients in the industry (even when she finally returned to modeling years later).

105. The sexual abuse that Epstein inflicted on [REDACTED] left permanent psychological scars. She remains plagued with self-doubt, insecurity, and despair. She often has difficulty sleeping. She has struggled to build healthy relationships, as she finds it nearly impossible to separate memories of Epstein's manipulation and abuse from new relationships she tries to develop.

106. When Epstein was arrested in July 2019, [REDACTED] was briefly hopeful that he might face justice, but the worldwide publicity that he subsequently received only deepened her despair. Epstein's death left [REDACTED] with the desolate sense that he has managed to evade justice yet again. She desperately wants some measure of justice for herself and all of Epstein's other underage victims.

107. This action is timely because it falls within New York CPLR 214-g and is brought during the one-year time period set forth in that section. The claims brought herein allege intentional and negligent acts and/or omissions for physical, psychological, and other injury suffered as a result of conduct that would constitute sexual offenses as defined in Article 130 of the New York Penal Law, and such acts and/or omissions were committed against [REDACTED] when she was less than eighteen years of age.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
(Battery)

108. Plaintiff hereby incorporates each of the foregoing paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

109. In committing the acts described above, Epstein intentionally subjected [REDACTED] to bodily contact that was offensive in nature.

110. [REDACTED] is liable for aiding and abetting Epstein's actions.

111. Upon information and belief, [REDACTED] knowingly provided substantial assistance to Epstein in Epstein's tortious actions against [REDACTED]

112. Upon information and belief, [REDACTED] was aware at the time that she was playing a role in overall illegal and/or tortious activity by Epstein.

113. As a result of Epstein's and [REDACTED] actions [REDACTED] suffered damages in an amount to be determined at trial.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION (Assault)

114. Plaintiff hereby incorporates each of the foregoing paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

115. In committing the acts described above, Epstein engaged in physical conduct that placed [REDACTED] in imminent apprehension that he would harm her.

116. [REDACTED] is liable for aiding and abetting Epstein's actions.

117. Upon information and belief, [REDACTED] knowingly provided substantial assistance to Epstein in Epstein's tortious actions against [REDACTED]

118. Upon information and belief, [REDACTED] was aware at the time that she was playing a role in overall illegal and/or tortious activity by Epstein.

119. As a result of Epstein's and [REDACTED] actions, [REDACTED] suffered damages in an amount to be determined at trial.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION
(Intentional Infliction of Emotional Distress)

120. Plaintiff hereby incorporates each of the foregoing paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

121. In committing the acts described above, Epstein and [REDACTED] engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct.

122. In doing so, Epstein and [REDACTED] acted with the intent to cause, and/or disregard of a substantial likelihood of causing [REDACTED] to suffer severe emotional distress.

123. As a direct result of Epstein and [REDACTED] actions, Mary suffered severe emotional distress.

124. [REDACTED] is likewise liable for aiding and abetting Epstein's actions.

125. Upon information and belief, [REDACTED] knowingly provided substantial assistance to Epstein in Epstein's tortious actions against [REDACTED]

126. Upon information and belief, [REDACTED] was aware at the time that she was playing a role in overall illegal and/or tortious activity by Epstein.

127. As a result of Epstein's and [REDACTED] actions, [REDACTED] suffered damages in an amount to be determined at trial.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that judgment be entered against Defendants as follows:

- a. Awarding compensatory damages for all physical injuries, emotional distress, psychological harm, anxiety, humiliation, physical and emotional pain and suffering, family and social disruption, and other harm, in an amount to be determined at trial;
- b. Awarding punitive damages in an amount to be determined at trial;
- c. Awarding attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to any applicable statute or law;
- d. Awarding pre- and post-judgment interest on all such damages, fees and/or costs;
- e. Attaching all of Defendants' real property and other assets located in the State of New York pursuant to New York CPLR 6201 et seq. and Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 64; and
- f. Awarding such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.

Dated: New York, New York

[Redacted]

[Redacted]

Attorneys for Plaintiff