about the lifestyle. [REDACTED] did not have her massage therapist certificate yet. [REDACTED] told [REDACTED] that MAXWELL would support her educational adventures. Education was very important to [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] told [REDACTED], "Take the most great experience and imagine even better" when referring to this position. When they were walking back to [REDACTED] apartment, [REDACTED] took a picture of her face. [REDACTED] recalled hoping that she was good enough and pretty enough. [REDACTED] told [REDACTED], "They're going to love you. Ms. Maxwell is going to love you."

[REDACTED] heard from someone and her flight was booked. [REDACTED] recalled seeing the "very evident success" of MAXWELL. [REDACTED] flew on a Delta flight from [REDACTED] to New York. A driver met [REDACTED] at the airport with a name card; it was a Lincoln town car. [REDACTED] was taken to a one-bedroom apartment. [REDACTED] recalled there being a kitchen to the right of the apartment and a bathroom to the left. There was yogurt, Milano cookies, and a fruit basket in the apartment. [REDACTED] was given directions to meet MAXWELL. [REDACTED] thought she stayed two nights in this apartment. [REDACTED] walked to MAXWELL's townhouse. [REDACTED] knocked on the door and was let in. [REDACTED] described MAXWELL's home having a Victorian type staircase, which was stunning. The staircase was to the right when she walked in. [REDACTED] walked up the stairs to see a butler standing with a silver tray. [REDACTED] felt like this was something out of a movie. She walked into a large room with high ceilings. There was a massage table set up. MAXWELL walked out in a white robe and introduced herself. [REDACTED] told MAXWELL about her father and where she was from; MAXWELL had told her that they were just in [REDACTED] or heading there. [REDACTED] and MAXWELL had [REDACTED]. MAXWELL talked with [REDACTED] about helicopters. [REDACTED] felt comfortable; like she and MAXWELL were related to each other. MAXWELL laid down on the table. [REDACTED] massaged MAXWELL for an hour. MAXWELL fell asleep. [REDACTED] could not recall if she woke MAXWELL or if MAXWELL woke on her own. MAXWELL then got up.

[REDACTED] used the restroom at one point. [REDACTED] saw a framed photograph of MAXWELL with BILL CLINTON, which reiterated to [REDACTED] that MAXWELL was wealthy and successful. MAXWELL told [REDACTED] that she was going to meet her partner JEFFREY EPSTEIN. This was the first time that [REDACTED] had heard of him. MAXWELL told [REDACTED] that she and EPSTEIN were work partners and entrepreneurs. MAXWELL commented on how tall [REDACTED] was. MAXWELL told [REDACTED] to give EPSTEIN a massage and give him what he wants. MAXWELL told [REDACTED] that EPSTEIN was going to love her and that "Jeffrey always gets what he wants". MAXWELL gave [REDACTED] a $100 bill. [REDACTED] left MAXWELL's townhouse and walked back to the apartment she was staying in.

MAXWELL had told [REDACTED] that her own place was nice but [REDACTED] should wait until she saw EPSTEIN's home. MAXWELL told [REDACTED] that EPSTEIN had the largest brownstone on the island.

At approximately five or six in the evening [REDACTED] walked to EPSTEIN's home. Everything was within a few blocks walking distance. [REDACTED] knocked on the door and was let in to wait in an office. The office was to the left and was round with a bench, books, and a desk. There was a Delta airplane model in the room. [REDACTED] thought that EPSTEIN and MAXWELL had some ownership of Delta. [REDACTED] did not recall who came to get her from the office. She walked to the kitchen and was introduced to EPSTEIN and sat down. EPSTEIN was eating dinner. There was a chef there and everyone was chatting. [REDACTED] recalled that the kitchen was not that big; she was expecting something bigger. EPSTEIN told her that it was not the only kitchen. Everyone was being polite.

EPSTEIN told [REDACTED], "Let's go". They walked up the staircase at the end of the hall. EPSTEIN's office had tall doors. [REDACTED] felt like it was like a castle. [REDACTED] recalled that she thought there were red velvet curtains that pooled on the carpet. [REDACTED] described the room as rectangular. There was a desk on one end to the right and to the left there was a long couch. EPSTEIN and [REDACTED] sat on the couch and EPSTEIN asked her questions. EPSTEIN told [REDACTED] that he wanted her to give him a foot massage, then placed his foot on her lap. [REDACTED] thought this was not normally how she would give a massage. EPSTEIN dug his heel into her "crotch" and put his toes between her breasts. [REDACTED] tried to reposition herself and ignored it. [REDACTED] got up and sat on a stool while EPSTEIN extended his leg out straight. EPSTEIN was talking to her about traveling and asked her if she would be interested. EPSTEIN told her that he would be leaving in a couple of weeks and asked if she had her passport. [REDACTED] did not have her passport but she told him that she did. EPSTEIN seemed to know that [REDACTED] was lying. [REDACTED] sat back down next to EPSTEIN and kept talking with him. EPSTEIN was sitting to her left and grabbed her jaw. [REDACTED] was uncomfortable and giggled awkwardly. EPSTEIN told her, "I can always trust a girl who shows gums when she smiles.". [REDACTED] described that it was weird and awkward. When [REDACTED] started walking towards the door, EPSTEIN grabbed her buttocks on the left side. [REDACTED] recalled that she could see the stairs and the hallway. EPSTEIN took his fingers and grabbed her vagina from behind. [REDACTED] described this as "one long stroke" then EPSTEIN grabbed her buttocks again. [REDACTED] had an ankle long dress on. [REDACTED] then started walking downstairs and talked about meeting with MAXWELL again. EPSTEIN told [REDACTED], "Don't do anything I wouldn't do," and patted her on the buttocks. [REDACTED] then walked back to her apartment.

The next morning, [REDACTED] did not hear anything. At some point, she ate at a café. [REDACTED] recalled getting in a car and another girl, whose name she did not recall, was also in the car. This girl was shorter than [REDACTED] with blondish brown hair. This girl asked [REDACTED] what she did and [REDACTED] told her that she gave a massage. [REDACTED] asked her the same question. This girl did not meet with MAXWELL but worked out with EPSTEIN. The girl asked [REDACTED] what EPSTEIN and MAXWELL do; [REDACTED] told her they were entrepreneurs.

A few days after [REDACTED] returned to [REDACTED], she received an email from someone named CYM. [REDACTED] thought her name was CYM ANNE but she was unsure. It was a follow-up email that said something like, "Thanks for coming out; we are making our final decision.". [REDACTED] did not remember if she responded. This was sent to [REDACTED] old Juno account. [REDACTED] never heard from them again.

[REDACTED] saw an article about EPSTEIN being found in the fetal position in a jail cell. [REDACTED] saw his face and that is when she put all the pieces together in her mind. [REDACTED] stated that she did not originally know his last name. The following week [REDACTED] reached out to her therapist.
