Re: Telephone call with [REDACTED]
Date: July 10, 2019

On July 10, 2019, at approximately 3:12 pm, I received a telephone call from [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] excused herself for not returning my calls. She said that she was staying in the mountains and have little to no reception. [REDACTED] also pointed out that once she turns on her cellular phone, she has up to forty missed calls, with the majority being unknown calls. Also, when she calls her friends who also knew Jeffery Epstein, they made a comment that their volume of calls has also increased, with mainly unknown numbers. This reminds [REDACTED] when Epstein's was on trial in Florida, she would receive many telephone calls from unknown numbers too. During that time, [REDACTED] said that she was also followed by unknown person(s) and received telephone calls from reporters and others.

[REDACTED] asked if [REDACTED], from the U.S. Attorney's Office, would ever call her, I told her no. I would be the only person from her office that would be reaching out to her.

I asked her if she was aware that Epstein was arrested in New York and she said yes. I explained to her that he was arrested on new charges.

[REDACTED] asked if [REDACTED] had something to do with his criminal case in New York, I told her no. I explained to her that we are only involved with the civil case. She also asked if anything that she discuss with [REDACTED] will be made public? I told her that [REDACTED] will best person to answered that question. I suggested to [REDACTED] to have another telephone conference with [REDACTED], for [REDACTED] to answer any questions that she might have. A conference call was set for July 13, 2019 at 12:00 pm.
