[REDACTED], date of birth [REDACTED], was interviewed over video conference by AUSA [REDACTED], AUSA [REDACTED], AUSA [REDACTED], Detective [REDACTED] and Special Agent [REDACTED]. Also present for this interview was [REDACTED] attorneys Jay Musoff and Brandon Zamudio. After being advised of the identity of the above listed individuals and the nature of the interview, [REDACTED] provided the following information:

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] first met GHISLAINE MAXWELL at [REDACTED] school [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] was not that close with her but he knew of her. She was well known because of her status and she would often have helicopters pick her up from school. [REDACTED] left for [REDACTED] after finishing school and didn't have contact with her for many years after that.

He began to know her socially at some point by seeing her at events. They would say hello to each other and joke about school. [REDACTED] did not have much knowledge of the details of her life at this time. This was around late 2001.

During the summer of 2016, MAXWELL reached out to [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] [REDACTED]. MAXWELL asked [REDACTED] about [REDACTED] and if she was involved with EPSTEIN. This call was about [REDACTED] and was not about [REDACTED]. MAXWELL wanted to know if she was involved with an investigation or with EPSTEIN. MAXWELL asked [REDACTED] to talk to [REDACTED] about it. [REDACTED] dodged this question. He tells MAXWELL that [REDACTED] and he doesn't know anything about that situation. MAXWELL asks [REDACTED] to reach out to [REDACTED].

This phone call was a blast from the past for [REDACTED] and he was shocked that MAXWELL called him. It was unusual for MAXWELL to call him. [REDACTED] felt that maybe EPSTEIN was in trouble again and that's why MAXWELL was calling him.

Sometime after this call [REDACTED] calls [REDACTED] to tell her that MAXWELL called him. [REDACTED] was shocked and told [REDACTED] not to talk to her. [REDACTED] does not think he ever spoke to MAXWELL after this.

[REDACTED] and [REDACTED] still talk regularly.

[REDACTED] had known that [REDACTED] knew MAXWELL and EPSTEIN but they really didn't discuss them. She was clear that she did not like MAXWELL or EPSTEIN but they did not go into details on why. It was [REDACTED] tone that would let [REDACTED] know she did not like them. If their names came up, [REDACTED] would turn white and sometimes stammer. [REDACTED] never told [REDACTED] how she met MAXWELL. [REDACTED] knew they met a while back and possibly [REDACTED].

[REDACTED] wasn't entirely aware there was a case but he knew that something was going on. At the time, [REDACTED] thought that EPSTEIN had been acquitted. [REDACTED] had given [REDACTED] very few details of this case. She was sensitive about it so [REDACTED] did not talk about it. [REDACTED] has not really talked about any detail regarding her and EPSTEIN and MAXWELL.

After receiving a phone call from Detective [REDACTED], [REDACTED] called [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] tells [REDACTED] that she's involved in the EPSTEIN case and she herself had given an interview and that [REDACTED] can mention her name.

MAXWELL may have introduced [REDACTED] to EPSTEIN briefly on one occasion at an event [REDACTED] in the early 2000's. Outside of this, they did not hang out with them.
