Looks like there has been many changes as of late...although I have not looked in a while...I have notice everyone has been scrubbing their FB, and canceling on line pages. Fing'rs Brazil and Fing'rs Europe are active.

Fingrs.com is gone. Fing'rs is a Mass Retail brand sold exclusively through distributors, you find the product in most retail stores. Fing'rs was bought by Pacific World Corp/Revlon, [REDACTED] Apparently this brand was bailed out by "Prospect Capital 2014 - Provides $215MM to this company to recapitalize them, a portfolio company of Levine Leichtman Capital Partners. ...Aren't these Epstein peeps???

They have once again rebranded under Fing'rs Prints.
