Hi [REDACTED]

I got your message, thank you for getting back to me. I just left you a message. Lets set a date and time, when you have time to hear me out...I can't do 20 years in 30 minutes...The story won't make sense and you will waste a lot of time trying to put the pieces together...it took me a while, and I was there... What I will say, is some of those crazy sounding "conspiracy theories" are true, and this is far bigger then I could have ever imagined...And yes it goes back decades...and far too much for me to carry. However you will find...I couldn't make this stuff up!

The only thing that keeps me going now is the hope that we can make a difference....That change is possible...that justice will be serviced. After 11 am works best for me. Please keep me posted.

I could only imagine that you think, I am one of thousands who has nothing better to do but waste the FBI's time, or that you don't believe I have valuable information, or that you already know what I know...either one, you couldn't be further from the truth. I'm really sorry, and I don't mean to be rude, but honestly I am very disappointed in the lack of service, communication and care, in such a very difficult situation as this.

You said "you listened and do understood" my burden and you would be calling me back. I understand you are busy, and I have tried to be patient however, I'm drowning here, as I wait for you to get back to my calls, and emails, requesting your help...its been weeks now and I'm still waiting....

I told you weeks ago I needed your help, the burden was overwhelming, and taking a toll on me....I can't begin to express how difficult this reality has become for me. The suffering children in my nightmares...The people still around believing they are untouchable, as they pretend to be my friends, as I am waiting...hoping to turn them in to the FBI but FBI is not calling... I have a moral obligation to provide the information I have ...a 20 year story of which you gave me 30 minutes, dropped the call and never called back...

I have been calling, emailing, waiting, watching...hoping you call back. If you don't have time for me... I will find someone who does. It's not like I haven't tried to share the truth...I do need to make it happen...So many have suffered. I will stand up for those with no voice, be confirmation for those who have been silenced out of fear. We have to make these people accountable for their crimes.

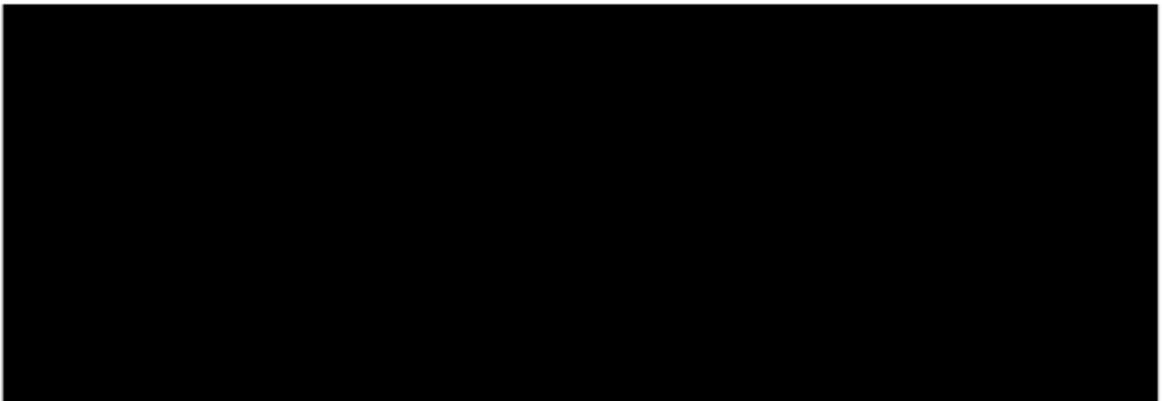

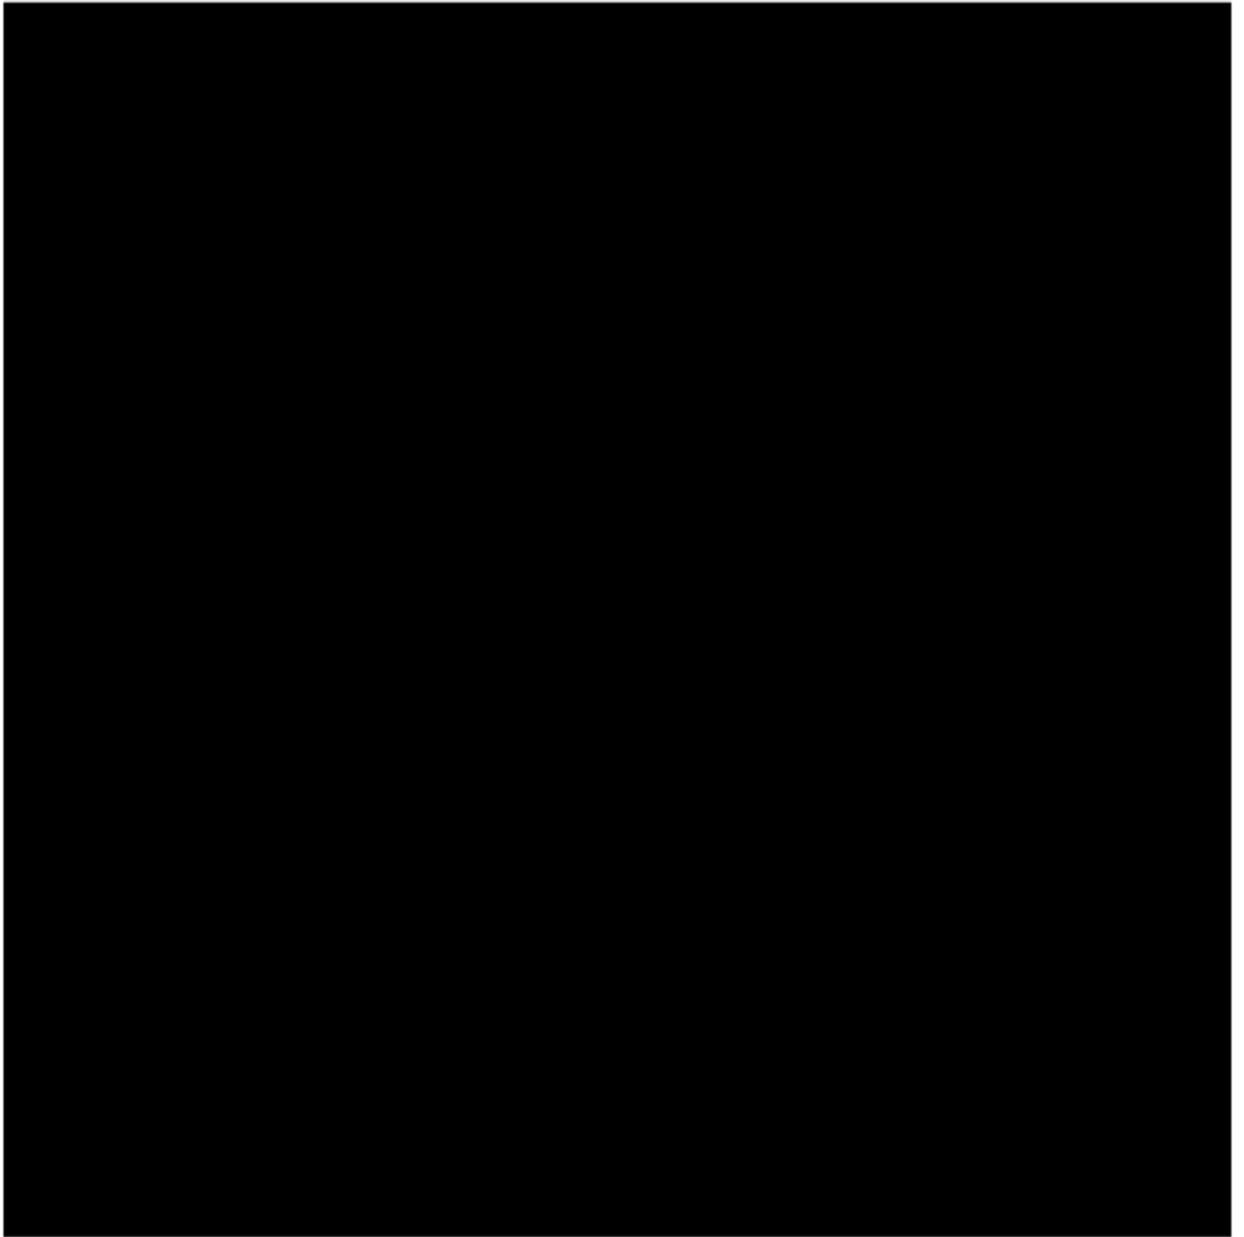

...So much for whistleblowing!!! It's everything I thought it would be and more...Terrible!!! There has to be a better way.

Sincerely,

I apologize our video interview was cut off and ran short. Maybe we could possibly set up another time to talk. In the meantime, was there a website associated with the company "Fingers" you mentioned? Also, if you'd like to send the photos via email, feel free to send to me.

Thanks,
