We really don't have a set pattern to the Conference. Normally it occurs between early October and mid-November. There have been a few times in recent history where it's been in September, although it's been a number of years.

[REDACTED] event was also at the Sheraton New Orleans. We had sleeping rooms there, as well as at the Windsor Court.

Hope this helps in the meantime. Do you need the official Conference dates for these years?

Ms. Thonn,

Thank you for the information below on the hotels. I realize records from 12 or 13 years ago may be difficult to track down. I appreciate you checking into to this.

I have two other quick questions, if you wouldn't mind.

Is your conference always held the same time of year? I see this year it's in late October. Also, what hotels did the conference use in [REDACTED]?

Thank you again and have a good weekend,

Good morning, Ms. [REDACTED]. For the moment I can verify for you which hotel was utilized for the Conferences listed below. Regarding these two individuals participating, however, I'll have to get back with you. We've transitioned through several computer databases since then and all of our paper records were destroyed at our storage facility several years ago. I'll do some checking and get back with you hopefully early next week.
