Details:

On 07/12/2019, at 11:48 a.m. Eastern Time, [REDACTED], date of birth [REDACTED], called the FBI National Threat Operations Center (NTOC) Unit, to report Denis-Paul Robillard for his possible connections to the Jeffery Epstein case.

[REDACTED] provided the following information:

Approximately 30 years ago, [REDACTED] Robillard lived with his mother [REDACTED]. Robillard's father, deceased at the time, was known as a "sex maniac."

[REDACTED] recalled Robillard bragging that he was a chauffeur for Robert Maxwell, father of Ghislaine Maxwell. Robillard described Maxwell as "disgusting" and stated that whenever he had to go the bathroom, he would instruct Robillard to pull over so Maxwell could pee on the side of the road.

Robillard once mentioned something about young girls being rounded up from Cuba. The girls were to be sent to the United States. Robillard also stated that if the girls get out of line, he would "give them a slap." [REDACTED] became angry and argued with Robillard. Robillard told [REDACTED] that the girls were being "generously compensated;" and added that the girls did not mind, because the money was going to support their families back home. [REDACTED] believes that these girls may have been "disadvantaged."
