Details:

On 07/12/2019, at 12:29p.m. Eastern Time, William Blackwood, date of birth [REDACTED], called the FBI National Threat Operations Center (NTOC) to report a potential magazine and website by Jeffrey Epstein, no personally identifiable information (PII).

Blackwood provided the following information:

Blackwood's buddy Eric Last Name Unknown (LNU), no PII, called Blackwood about when Blackwood and LNU worked for an internet company called EarthLink. While Blackwood was employed with EarthLink in the late 90's Blackwood was required to report child pornography websites.

Blackwood came across a modeling website for younger girls and a published magazine. Blackwood cannot remember much; however, does remember the modeling website containing children as young as ten on it.

The format of the published magazine was online; however, you could read through the entire magazine. Blackwood came across multiple magazines with different titles but always had "LS" at the beginning. Some titles of the magazines were "LS Island Magazine", "LS Island", "LS Magazine", and "LS Dreams".

The LS Magazine's contained no names and images of under aged girls dressed inappropriately and nude. As different series of LS Magazine's were released they got worse. LS Magazines was not like a Playboy Magazine but would be considered as child pornography.

Blackwood believes the magazines were released outside of the United States. Blackwood does not believe the United States would allow something like LS Magazine to be published.

Blackwood would reported the website and magazine by sending an email to "someone" within the company. Everything that Blackwood discovered in LS Magazine relates to Epstein.
