Drafted By: [REDACTED] [REDACTED]

Date/Time Received: 07/08/2019 12:00 PM EDT

Details:

On 07/08/2019, at 5:11 p.m. Eastern Time, [REDACTED] ([REDACTED]), date of birth [REDACTED], called the FBI National Threat Operations Center (NTOC), to report allegedly being drugged by a drink given by Jeffrey Epstein.

[REDACTED] provided the following information:

In 2005, [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] took his mother to celebrate in one of most "chic" restaurants in Palm Beach, where you can find pretty and successful people.

[REDACTED] said that after getting situated and ordering some wine for her, the female waitress approached her and said "there is a gentleman over there that wants to know what are you drinking and wants to buy you a drink"

[REDACTED] accepted and the man came with the drink in his hands and gave it to [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] described the man as tall, handsome, wearing a stripped polo shirt, lavender and white, with khaki pants, in his mid 30's and very tanned. [REDACTED] said the man was Jeffrey Epstein.

The man invited [REDACTED] and her mother, whom looked very young for her age, to a party just around the corner. [REDACTED] said "no thanks" and the man left.

[REDACTED] got up and was very sick of her stomach, stumbled to the car, didn't know what to do. The valet was so concerned that he suggested that [REDACTED] mother should drive. The same man from the restaurant approached her mother and asked "would you like to go to a party?" [REDACTED] mother said, "Yes, we will follow you" [REDACTED] mother saw the place where the man drove in, but they kept driving.

The man was driving a silver Mustang convertible.

[REDACTED] was taken to a friend, where she passed out for about 3 hours. [REDACTED] believes the man put something in her drink.
