Details:

On 11/23/2019, at 8:33 p.m. Eastern Time, [REDACTED], date of birth [REDACTED], called the FBI National Threat Operations Center (NTOC) regarding information possibly related to Jeffrey Epstein.

[REDACTED] provided the following information:

[REDACTED] Jordan French, [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] is a reputation manager and crisis manager. French has a lot of high profile clients, but the one that concerns [REDACTED] is [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] has overheard conversations between [REDACTED] and French that leads [REDACTED] to believe French could be involved in sex trafficking/human trafficking, but at the very least he could have information related to Jeffrey Epstein.

[REDACTED] is concerned because she knows [REDACTED] has concerning connections to Epstein. [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] believes French will have information due to him working as [REDACTED] reputation manager. [REDACTED] tried to reach out to [REDACTED], but she blocked her. This caused a large argument between [REDACTED] and French. French is currently not home and allegedly in Costa Rica with his brother. During the call, police officers arrived and could be heard in the background. [REDACTED] had called 911 prior to calling NTOC. [REDACTED] wanted the information reported everywhere.

French previously worked for the US government. French and his brother, personal identifiers not provided, have been involved with illegal activity. [REDACTED] did not go into detail about what illegal activity French was involved in. [REDACTED] previously reached out to the FBI, and she believes she got a call from the FBI the next day, but whoever called her did not leave a voicemail.
