Details:

On 09/10/2019, at 12:36:56 PM Eastern Time, [REDACTED]
[REDACTED], date of birth [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] called the FBI National Threat Operations Center (NTOC) to report having worked for Jeffrey Epstein.

[REDACTED] provided the following information:

Around 1999 or 2000, Ghislaine Maxwell enthusiastically contacted [REDACTED], age 22, in regards to an employment opportunity. Maxwell had found [REDACTED] through a reputable employment agency (information not provided). Epstein interviewed [REDACTED] at his Upper Eastside townhouse inside a locked room. Epstein was in a bathrobe, which he explained was due to him being sick. Epstein made some odd remarks, but did not act inappropriately. [REDACTED] was hired to work as a receptionist at Epstein's office which was across the Palace Hotel, behind Saks Fifth Ave., New York, NY. [REDACTED] remembers the identity of some of the individuals in contact with Epstein, including Donald Trump's office, and the Duchess of York Sarah Ferguson.

[REDACTED] stated that on one occasion a female which she described as a Russian model went to the office to give Epstein a massage. Also, that since Epstein had an island, office employees would play an odd game of trying to send items (including perishables) to the island without getting caught by customs.

██████ only worked for Epstein for about two or three months. ██████ decided to leave that job, since she felt the atmosphere of the office was odd. ██████ is unsure if some of the information she has is pertinent, but she does have a journal that chronicled the time she worked with Epstein which she could look for.
