TRAFFICKING

Drafted By: [REDACTED]

Date/Time Received: 07/19/2019 07:48 PM EDT

Details:

On 07/19/2019, at 7:48 p.m. Eastern Time, Retired New Mexico State Police Officer, [REDACTED], telephone number [REDACTED], other personal identifiers refused, called the FBI National Threat Operations Center (NTOC), regarding information related to Jeffrey Epstein, main case no.: 31E-NY-3027571.

[REDACTED] provided the following information:

[REDACTED] lives in the neighborhood of a property owned by Jeffrey Epstein. The property which is on Zorro Ranch Road, Stanley, NM, his recently had a large barn constructed. The barn is suspicious as there is a garage door that appears to be a sally port, and there is a chimney. [REDACTED] is concerned the property could potentially have an incinerator concealed within the barn. An old 1970's mobile home was recently put right behind the barn, which [REDACTED] believes does not follow Santa Fe County regulations. There have been a lot of high profile people seen frequenting the property. [REDACTED] has heard rumors that the property was used for recruited girls to visit with Epstein, but he has no factual evidence to support this claim. [REDACTED] heard rumors that girls from Albuquerque and the Moriarty area were recruited for Epstein.

[REDACTED] patrolled this area for 15 years before he retired. The property was owned previously by the governor of New Mexico, but the property was sold to Epstein before the governor's passing. The property that [REDACTED] is reporting, is about three miles away from Epstein's mansion. [REDACTED] explained that there is a lot of security for the properties including
