This was surprisingly believable... seems like the French woman "consoling" that child could have been Ghislaine

Oh no! The Chasseur has committed suicide by shooting himself twice in the back of the head and then threw himself out of a plane! Tragic.

Reminds me of that one movie

"THE CONSPIRACY"

Wouldn't surprise me if they had human hunting parties on that island and that temple probably was used for dark rituals.

Full movie is on youtube the movie cover is a guy in a red Bull mask wearing a suit
