the room to the right was an open area that had doors to the pool. There was a room that was MAXWELL's office that had doors with glass. There was a kitchen and bedrooms upstairs.

[REDACTED] worked there for approximately six to nine months. [REDACTED] explained that she was doing drugs at the time so it was hard to say how long she stayed there.

[REDACTED] went to the house when they called her. At first, she went quite a bit, a couple times a week. It was inconsistent. She would go weeks without being there.

MAXWELL had told [REDACTED] to bring friends that were interested in work. MAXWELL did not explain what her friends would be doing. When [REDACTED] first went, she took her two college roommates, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] did not recall their last names. [REDACTED] described [REDACTED] as a tall blonde and [REDACTED] was heavier set. MAXWELL did not like [REDACTED] or [REDACTED]. MAXWELL did not like [REDACTED] because she was heavier set.

EPSTEIN, MAXWELL, and another girl lived at the house. The girl lived in one of the upstairs bedrooms. [REDACTED] described the girl as thinner with light brown or dirty blonde hair. [REDACTED] met the girl at the house. MAXWELL introduced the girl and [REDACTED] to each other. The girl showed [REDACTED] around the house. They went upstairs and got naked on the massage tables. There was a guy there when [REDACTED] and the girl got massages. This guy taught them to give massages. [REDACTED] described the guy as having dark hair and being a couple of inches taller than [REDACTED]; [REDACTED] is 5'4". [REDACTED] only saw the guy 2 to 3 times. The girl was the one who showed [REDACTED] things there. The girl worked for them. [REDACTED] was 20 years old at the time and thought the girl was around her age. [REDACTED] assumed the girl was around her age. [REDACTED] thought the girl could have been a year younger or older than her, but [REDACTED] was not sure of the girl's actual age.

MAXWELL asked [REDACTED] to call a ballet school in West Palm Beach. MAXWELL wanted [REDACTED] to ask girls to come over. MAXWELL said she had done ballet when she was younger and wanted to get her ballet skills back. MAXWELL wanted younger people who were more limber. MAXWELL wanted to make sure the massage table was set up. [REDACTED] thought she may have assumed MAXWELL wanted the guy there because he gave massages but [REDACTED] was not sure. [REDACTED] called the ballet school but did not remember if she scheduled anyone. [REDACTED] did not see them.

MAXWELL asked [REDACTED] to give EPSTEIN massages. MAXWELL asked [REDACTED] to answer the phones. [REDACTED] was only allowed to answer 2-3 of the 8 phone lines. MAXWELL told [REDACTED] how to answer the phones. [REDACTED] thought she remembered her telling her how to transfer and how to make the calls. MAXWELL gave [REDACTED] a lot of cash to get movie tickets for them from the theater at City Place.

MAXWELL had [REDACTED] shred phone books that MAXWELL had made. [REDACTED] described the phone books as being "not quite half a page" and being bound. The phone books were cloth like and had a hard back and hard binding that was black almost like a sketch book. When they updated the books, [REDACTED] had to take the pages out and shred them. [REDACTED] described the room where she shredded the books being on the first floor down the hallway that looked like an office but did not look used. The room was pretty empty with not much decor.

[REDACTED] only gave massages to EPSTEIN. MAXWELL told [REDACTED] to just remember what she learned from the massage therapist. The first massage [REDACTED] gave EPSTEIN was out by the pool. [REDACTED] recalled EPSTEIN having a chart of gray colors and told her to come help him pick out a gray color for his jet. [REDACTED] started massaging EPSTEIN's feet and legs.

[REDACTED] recalled she did not wear much back then. She wore short shorts and was skinny so she hardly wore anything to cover her stomach.

EPSTEIN was "handsy" and "touchy feely". EPSTEIN was not afraid to say what he liked or did not like. When [REDACTED] massaged EPSTEIN it would only be the two of them. [REDACTED] described that they could be seen from the living room area but the doors were shut. EPSTEIN touched [REDACTED] "all over", including on her breasts, waste, thighs, and probably grabbed her "ass". When EPSTEIN touched her breasts, [REDACTED] had a shirt on. EPSTEIN touched her breasts over and under her shirt. At the time, [REDACTED] had never had sex before. [REDACTED] gave EPSTEIN massages in the lawn chair by the pool. [REDACTED] thought EPSTEIN was wearing a shirt and shorts. [REDACTED] also gave EPSTEIN a massage in the kitchen, but it was not a fully body massage.

Upstairs massages were more intimate. [REDACTED] felt that the upstairs seemed more intimate. [REDACTED] knew the downstairs area; she did not feel free to roam upstairs. There were massages done upstairs. The girl had a room upstairs. The girl shared with [REDACTED] that they had guests that stayed upstairs. The girl took care of those guests. [REDACTED] understanding was that by the girl taking care of those guests that was how she was able to live there. The girl said they were visitors. [REDACTED] thought the girl had told her she lived there but [REDACTED] did not remember.

When [REDACTED] first went to EPSTEIN's home, she saw the black and white photograph. [REDACTED] also saw a woman who had on only bikini bottoms and a towel walk through. [REDACTED] thought that was how rich people lived by having beautiful naked people around.

[REDACTED] understanding was that EPSTEIN and MAXWELL were boyfriend and girlfriend; they lived together. It was made clear to [REDACTED] that it was their house. The phone lines were for them. Now that [REDACTED] has thought back, she did not recall seeing them kissing or being intimate. [REDACTED] saw that they lived and worked there together. [REDACTED] did not care to understand and did not ask questions. [REDACTED] assumed they lived there or it was their second home. EPSTEIN and MAXWELL were always there when [REDACTED] was there. [REDACTED] was never at their home without them.

[REDACTED] thought she remembered all men calling the phone lines. [REDACTED] did not remember what they called about. [REDACTED] did not remember if there were women calling.

MAXWELL paid [REDACTED] $200 an hour in 100 dollar bills.

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] recalled she flew home for Christmas in 2001 and then flew back. [REDACTED] was more into partying and snorting cocaine. [REDACTED] recalled she was staying with a family with the last name [REDACTED] slept on their couch for a while. [REDACTED] recalled coming in to the home and seeing the mom, [REDACTED] sitting at the table with two officers. The officers, who were a man and woman, told [REDACTED] they were investigating a prostitution ring. [REDACTED] thought they were from the VICE squad. They asked [REDACTED] if she would continue to go back to the house to get more information. [REDACTED] said no and left Palm Beach. This interaction with law enforcement stuck out to [REDACTED] because she had never got in trouble or talked with the police prior to that.

[REDACTED] recalled when she first started going to EPSTEIN's home, she told her mom that she was going to rich people's home and making a lot of money. [REDACTED] mom called the university and said something was wrong. The school told her mom that everything was fine.

[REDACTED] had not thought about this in years until seeing EPSTEIN's arrest. [REDACTED] husband knows that she worked there but does not know everything.

[REDACTED] felt like MAXWELL recruited her "off the bat" and felt like MAXWELL was going to use her to recruit other girls.
