Details:

On 07/24/2019, at 4:23 p.m. Eastern Time, [REDACTED], called the FBI National Threat Operations Center (NTOC), to report information regarding being kidnapped and sexually abused by Jeffrey Epstein (Epstein), pending case no.: 31E-NY-3027571.

[REDACTED] provided the following information:

Around 2002, [REDACTED] had been kidnapped from his home [REDACTED] after being drugged. [REDACTED] does not remember what exactly happened, but remembers briefly waking up while getting off of a plane in FL. However, [REDACTED] had been drugged once again and didn't wake up until he was on a boat where he saw Epstein and his bodyguards. The boat took them to a small island where there was a home and a dock, [REDACTED] stated he watched the boat compass and they had been traveling east. Epstein kept telling [REDACTED] how there were going to be a lot of females there; however, [REDACTED] advised he was not interested.

[REDACTED] had seen some of the females when the boat docked and stated they looked about 14 or 15, but when he asked how old one of the females were he was told that it wasn't important. [REDACTED] continued to tell Epstein and the bodyguards how he did not want anything to do with getting off the boat, but they kept picking him up and pushing him towards the home. [REDACTED] never went inside the home and went back to the boat, which is where he stayed for about 30 minutes and then the boat left. Further information that was necessary was unable to be gathered due to the call
