[REDACTED], date of birth [REDACTED] was given an introductory meet with the case team over video conference. Present via video was Assistant United States Attorneys [REDACTED], [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] along with [REDACTED]. The above listed individuals met over video conference with [REDACTED] to introduce her to the team that was investigating the captioned case.

[REDACTED] expressed that she knew JEFFREY EPSTEIN and GHISLAINE MAXWELL from the time she was 14 years old to 20 years old. [REDACTED] expressed that she would have had no problem confronting EPSTEIN as things with him more black and white. [REDACTED] was conflicted when it came to MAXWELL, saying things with her were not so black and white as MAXWELL took on more of a maternal figure role. [REDACTED] was struggling with the idea that MAXWELL "did this to a nefarious end". [REDACTED] felt that it was complicated because she saw MAXWELL as EPSTEIN's prime victim. [REDACTED] believed EPSTEIN was a sociopath who could not feel. EPSTEIN would get people who were moldable. [REDACTED] felt MAXWELL was moldable because of her father. [REDACTED] advised this was the story she told herself to "maybe be ok with it" and how it happened.

MAXWELL threatened [REDACTED] so that she would do things. [REDACTED] advised she was lucky because she got out of things.

[REDACTED] advised that MAXWELL was "maybe like having an abusive parent" in that she felt protective of MAXWELL because [REDACTED] was conditioned to think like that.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] wanted to think about whether she wanted to give a detailed interview at a future date.
