Hi [REDACTED] – I read [REDACTED]'s statement. She says she first went with [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] between January and May of her senior year.

She says on the second visit she went with [REDACTED], [REDACTED], and [REDACTED]. This is weird because [REDACTED] says she went with [REDACTED].

She says on the third visit, she went with [REDACTED], [REDACTED], and [REDACTED].

Assuming [REDACTED] is correct about the order of visits and that [REDACTED] was with them on that trip, we are looking around July 2004 (because [REDACTED] called [REDACTED] in July 2004).

Is it safe to say that these events took place in or around the first half of 2004?
